

About TEAM Allied

Who We Are

TEAM Allied is a Team Relocations' company and is Europe's leader and one of the world's largest international moving companies. We have, as an integral part of our move management services, a comprehensive range of office and warehousing facilities located at 34 operating centres in 12 countries. These operations are strategically placed across the group and in over 120 countries globally within the Allied International network.

Our ability to maintain a consistent, high service standard from origin to destination globally, underpinned by rigorous service level agreements, a responsible corporate approach and a robust service charter ensures complete customer satisfaction, whilst providing positive benefits for both relocating employee and Client Company alike. TEAM Allied, successfully carries out over 30,000 removals per annum, and is considered to be at the forefront of the industry, consistently providing innovative cost-effective quality moving solutions.

As a result of our single source global capability and purchasing strength, many of our clients have contracted us to manage their moving programmes on a worldwide basis, irrespective of origin or destination. Our global move management experience is proven and we have the capability and resources to manage any programme globally.

TEAM Allied is a member of all the leading industry associations throughout the world and as such we adhere to strict financial, operational, ethical and quality standards, which these organisations require for membership.
